MESSAGE FROM THE LORD MAYOR.

Welcome to Brisbane. Our city has an incredible climate and outdoor lifestyle. Brisbane embodies the best of Australia. Brisbane is the perfect place to live, work and relax – it’s a safe, vibrant, green and prosperous city, with a relaxed warm and welcoming vibe.

I encourage you to embrace the full Brisbane experience by discovering all there is to see and do including cultural attractions, vibrant parklands and sensational shopping. Our magnificent weather all year round is perfect for outdoor dining, or exploring our meandering river by kayak, boat cruise, or walk or bike ride along our extensive network of waterside pathways. Brisbane has a popular events calendar designed to excite, delight and entertain – including international art exhibitions, theatre, modern and classical music concerts, sporting competitions, major festivals and fireworks. For those wanting to explore further afield, our surrounding regions are easily reached, offering naturally captivating idyllic sand islands, mountain peaks, walking trails, and incredible wildlife, all within an hour from the city centre. I hope you enjoy your visit to our city and leave Brisbane with many happy memories.

Adrian Schrinner
Lord Mayor of Brisbane
With clear blue skies and a pulsing river at our heart, Brisbane is an adventurous urban metropolis with a relaxed vibe. We celebrate a subtropical climate as an integral part of our alfresco lifestyle and culture. Explore stunning natural assets such as World Heritage rainforests, mountain peaks and a pristine bay, or immerse yourself in our ancient Aboriginal culture. A vibrant bar and dining scene, stunning new hotels, a jam-packed events calendar and a welcoming attitude means Brisbane embodies the best of Australia.

TASTES

COOL ART & HOT BOOKS
Spend the morning at Queensland Art Gallery | Gallery of Modern Art (QAGOMA), a world-leading art institution in the cultural precinct, South Bank. Featuring historical, modern and contemporary art as well as the Children’s Art Centre and Australian Cinematheque, art lovers and art newbies alike are astounded by these dynamic, relatable, fun, subtropical galleries. The GOMA bookshop has covetable coffee table books, designer jewellery and gifts. qagoma.qld.gov.au

PRETTY RIVER DRINKS
5pm: Sip creative cocktails at Riverbar & Kitchen. Continue the river walk to Greca at Howard Smith Wharves for generous Mediterranean hospitality. End with sundowners at fashionable Mr Percival’s.

MUNCH

HOLLYWOOD-STYLE LUNCH POOLSIDE
After all that art, it’s time for some grunge and a good lie down. Make your way through The Valley (grunge-culture central). Head to The Calile Hotel and Hellenika on James Street for a modern Greek lunch on umbrella-shielded cabanas old Hollywood-style by the pool. The food is impressive for its deft simplicity. It’s aspirational in that dishes are recognisably Greek but at the same time, break new culinary ground.

BEST RESTAURANTS

Brisbane’s dining scene is ever-expanding and adventurous. Sophisticated, urbane, reliable and relatable, the best of the best are places that locals return to time and again. However, if time is of the essence and you want a bite-sized snapshot of the most innovative and must-try dining right now in the River City – including ‘hatted’ restaurants – look no further.

MOD MIDDLE EAST

Gerard’s Bistro is secluded and surprising. Choose from the cosy inside area or keep it breezy in the foliage-lined laneway – lovely in summer. Flavour combinations from Africa, Europe and the Middle East are unique and delightful. It’s just as well that share plates are standard. Be prepared for big, bold flavours with wine to match.

14/15 James St, The Valley

FOOD ADVENTURING

Gauge features a sleek and progressive menu and interior. Exceptional produce by Jerome Batten (owner of cult ingredients mecca Sourced Grocer). The delightful brunch menu full of delicate dish combinations includes breakfast options served all day. A seven-course set menu with clever ideas like nori pastry and plum sorbet is a dining adventure waiting to happen. Check out their food images @gauge.brisbane; they’ll make you book.

77 Grey St, South Brisbane

ROMAN FOOD AND WINE LIBRARY

1889 Enoteca serves traditional Roman cuisine including hand-made pasta. ‘Enoteca’ means wine library and the extensive offering includes rare, regional varietals hard to find outside Italy. Located in the Woolloongabba antique quarter in the restored 1889 Moreton Rubber Works Building; dark leather banquettes, stained glass and gilt mirrors add to the Roman romance.

10-12 Logan Rd, Woolloongabba, 1889enoteca.com.au

E’CCO BISTRO

A city institution. Flavoursome, visually-appealing food with a no-fuss, honest approach.

GOMA RESTAURANT

Take time out to eat food as beautiful as the art by two-hat chef Douglas Innes-Wills.

SAME SAME

Classic Southeast Asian Cooking (flavourful and spicy) in a stunning venue.

OPA BAR + MEZZE

An incredible newcomer serving up incredible, authentic Greek fare and hospitality.

CHEAP EATS THAT DON'T SCRIMP ON QUALITY

Brisbane diners have traditionally been very thrifty: legging it down to their trusted local for a reliable snack on the regular. Even though the broader Brisbane food landscape is now a developed ecosystem with stellar but pricier options, there are still excellent accessible eateries that reward the hunger pangs deliciously.

MR BUNZ ARE LOVE
This tiny, tiny takeaway is famous for its legendary fluffy steamed buns. The eatery is no fuss but the buns (or ‘bunz’) are lovingly hand-made on-site daily. What’s not to love about soft bao filled with crispy pork or duck and fresh cucumber, jalapeno and mayo? Monthly menu changes. Like Mr Bunz says: Ay Carumba!
3/97 Boundary St, West End
mrbunz.com.au

AMERICAN BURGERS BUILT TO PERFECTION
Ben’s Burgers are perfectly-packed artisan beauties with gooey cheese, succulent juices, quality patties and soft sweet buns. Why not kick start the day with one of three breakfast burgers? There’s cute drinks to match with your meat ‘n’ bun miracle including cherry cola or a Hershey’s chocolate milkshake. The award-winning burger joint also cooks up an out-of-the-box monthly special if you’re feeling adventurous.
5B Winn Lane, Fortitude Valley, bensburgers.com.au

WHAT'S NOT TO LOVE ABOUT SOFT BAO FILLED WITH CRISPY PORK?
– MR BUNZ, WEST END

CHEEKY POKE BAR

OUTDOOR DINING

Brisbane is made for alfresco dining. Our picture-perfect winters, golden days and cool nights mean that life continues unabated during the day and hearty winter dishes make sense at night. Delicate, fresh flavours abound for the sultry summers and cooling down is but a cool tall glass of something special and delicious snack away. Get noshing in the great outdoors!

MAYA
What originally began as a passion project following an inspiring trip to Guadalajara, Mexico, MAYA is one of Brisbane’s best new rooftop dining experiences. Step out of the elevator and into a balmy Mexican vista overlooking the city.

X CARGO
Super cute multi-purpose venue billed as a ‘social hub’. Individually designed bars inside white, stacked-up shipping containers. The vibe is breezy Queensland bright: think flamingos, palm trees, pastels, gold Moet goblets and green mod grass. The open-air beer gardens are fun and flirty showcasing DJs, movies, events and private parties. The food is American-meets-Latin American: like spicy milk buns and coconut smoothies. Plenty of delicious raw food choices as well.

POPOLO PICNIC AT RIVER QUAY
Popolo Italian Kitchen and Bar offers authentic Italian feasting in a nod to dining en famiglia (with family). Small and large share plates reign supreme, hand-rolled pastas abound and pizzas are stacked with seasonal produce. Out front, chairs angle towards the river, a beautiful spot to watch the passing parade while imbibing fancy cocktails like Dolce Vita: spiced rum, raspberry, lime, Pedro Ximenez and iced tea.
popolodining.com

PATINA
Dine beneath the glorious Customs House. Fresh local seafood.

RIVERBAR & KITCHEN
Waterfront hub for brekky meetings (perfect pancakes) to cocktails.

THE TERRACE ROOFTOP
Green walls, onyx floor, stunning views. Cocktails and Asian eats on the 21st floor.

MR PERCIVAL’S
Great for ladies who lunch then continue to sip with the stylish set at sundown.
BARS AND BREWERIES

The Brisbane bar scene is varied and complex just like the brews coming out of microbreweries across town. The last ten years have seen an explosion of venues; a distillation of tastes and an expectation of authenticity. Brisbane is filled with uniquely designed places to imbibe designer liquor and rich, complex ales full of personality, passion and prestige.

WET DECK AT W HOTEL
Aussie BBQs, poolside fashion parades and curated cocktails accompanied by DJs chosen by the in-house Music Curator. Wet Deck at the W Hotel has its own refined but trippy tropicana five-star resort vibe. The black and white indigenous roof-to-pool floor patterning is bold and striking. There are river views aplenty by the pool or on the balcony. wbrisbane.com

BOOM BOOM ROOM
Beneath the streets of Brisbane awaits the newest Japanese restaurant & bar. Inspired by street food of Japan and influenced by the best local produce Australia has to offer, indulge in a delicious menu designed to blend both cuisines effortlessly. Boasting authentic sashimi and yakitori plates, as well as bold dishes curated by Executive Chef Jake Nicolson and Head Chef Zac Sykes, Boom Boom Izakaya is surely one to experience. theboomboomroom.com.au

RANGE BREWING
This award-winning small batch brewery is producing an amazing line-up of hoppy, dark and sour beers. With a fun and quirky design that describes their beer types, you can come back again and again to try the new evolving beer styles. Hungry? While visiting, enjoy a classic simple selection of sourdough pizzas that pair marvellously well with their liquid libations. rangebrewing.com

THE BEST OF BRISBANE STYLE

Brisbane is fashion-forward. While summery chic is definitely a thing, local and international designers are a crucial part of the mix. Glide through shiny stores in the suburbs or in the bustling CBD or head for James Street’s lush laneways for something different. Whatever the mecca, Brissie’s commitment to style never wanes. Tip: Brisbane’s nightlife is stylish – prepare!

GAIL SORRONDA
Local Brisbane designer Gail Sorronda creates monochromatic pieces in her signature style of dark romanticism. Her unique creative language speaks to indie musicians; worn by Lorde, Meg Mac and Megan Washington. Dolce and Gabbana are fans. A regular exhibitor in Paris and Milan, she remains a Brisbane resident, influenced as she is by the burgeoning cross-artform creativity. Check out Sorronda’s tiny but deeply satisfying James St store. gailsorronda.com

CALEXICO COOLNESS
Calexico is a super relaxed, fun, boho boutique with friendly in-house staff. Each staff member is a trained stylist and works with customers to create tailored looks from over 80 international labels. The cutest bags, shoes and other accessories complete the look. Keep an eye out for the twice-yearly seasonal sales. Shop 7/6 James St, The Valley calexico.com.au

THE CLOAKROOM: HAVEN FOR STYLISH MEN
Hand-made clothes for men in an inspiring environment. Suiting is handmade in Japan and ready-to-wear is Cifonelli. LANEWAY LOVE: THE SWEET WAY TO SHOP

There’s something special about laneway life. Perhaps it’s the sense of discovery, of uncovering a collection of experiences that feel fresh, new and underexposed. Perhaps it’s that creatives love sticking together and laneways rally the vibrant and inspired to show and share their unique wares in different and unusual ways. Whatever it is, be sure to check out these beauties.

FISH LANE FOR FOODIES
Funky Fish Lane is positioned perfectly near the cultural precinct. A seemingly endless stretch of innovative foodie haunts and cool little bars: Julius Pizzeria, Wandering Cooks, Hello Please, Gauge, Maeve Wine Bar, Maker, La Lune Wine Bar and more. The whole laneway is pushing food boundaries and when it’s not, it’s just being damned excellent. Go. Go now. explorefishlane.com.au

BAKERY LANE FOR BAKED GOODS & EYE CANDY
Created for design studios and retailers, Bakery Lane nailed the brief. Shop at Destacarse Boutique; pick cult playlists at Phase 4 Records + Cassettes; indulge at Cakes & Shit or ignite your taste buds and Nom Nom Korean. bakerylane.com.au

CALIFORNIA LANE
True to its namesake California Cafe (popular in the 1950s) there is a quirky cute, pastel feel here. Cool food on offer: Reverends Fine Coffee, Fat Dumpling, Doughlord, PJ’s Steaks, The Stand Desserts and American Diner Co. Makers include dunkle authentic, a local, ethically-produced makeup and skincare label and Rebellious Grace, producing hand-crafted, hypoallergenic jewellery. californialane.com.au

BURN MIDNIGHT OIL
Brisbane’s oldest lane Burnett Lane hails from convict days, where lashings were meted-out. Now bar-hoppers imbibe lashings of booze. It’s an all-hours gig. Get strong coffee at Brew. Brekky or lunch at Felix for Goodness is unmissable. Basque-inspired Alba Bar & Deli serves up jamon, hip-hop and sherry. Death and Taxes is ‘good moody’ with 100-year-old floors and 600 bottles of liquor. Bar flies end late at Super Whatnot. visitbrisbane.com.au

WINN LANE
Quirky and eclectic; peruse bespoke jewellery from master maker Jess Blak, relish live performances, strong whiskey and fancy cocktails at The Outpost or chow down at luscious Ben’s Burgers. winnlane.com.au

Brisbane’s neighbourhoods, like any city, have distinct and beloved characters from the lush and leisurely to the sophisticated and inner-city. What unifies all the different pockets is the overwhelming beauty of the River City with its sunshine, flowering trees, natural beauty and wildlife. There are so many ways to get around so be sure to ride the bus or train, walk, catch a ferry or a Green Cab. Most importantly, take this guide with you to discover world-class restaurants, cultural activities, urban adventuring and of course shopping.

BRISBANE CITY

From dusk until dawn, Brisbane City has got it going on. A city cafe crawl will reveal some of the best coffee in Australia, as well as meals to make your mouth water. Shopaholics will find everything from favourite brands to new up-and-coming designers – the perfect way to stay ahead of the sartorial pack. When it comes time to refuel, there are choices for days – you can find family staples, fine international dining and some new trends to try. For those who love the nightlife, the Brisbane City bar scene offers live tunes, local brews and expertly-crafted cocktails. Anyone needing a break from the hustle need only stroll to the lush City Botanic Gardens to recharge – pure bliss!

THE GRESHAM BAR
Proud owner of the only heritage bar licence in Queensland, that’s where any perceived stuffiness stops. This vintage gem welcomes everyone into its progressive midst. Bar staff craft artistic cocktails with enticing names like Midnight Rambler, Death and Taxes and Trench Coat. You’ll get a wink of respect when ordering from top-shelf rum, craft beers and wines. The whisky menu is novel length – almost as long as the list of awards won. Breakfast and bar snacks are served. thegresham.com.au

SOUTH BANK

Let’s be honest – Brisbane is blessed with delightfully warm weather pretty much all year, so it’s wise to know the best spots to cool off when the mercury starts to rise. South Bank’s free swimming facilities are an absolute saviour, providing a safe environment for people of all ages to enjoy a splash and paddle. Streets Beach provides a little slice of coastal paradise, not to mention the view of the Brisbane River and city skyline is very easy on the eyes. The pools are patrolled during peak times and the Boat Pool also has disabled access – see the South Bank Visitor Information and Booking Centre for details.

INDULGE AT OTTO

OTTO celebrates people, place and la dolce vita. Located on the absolute riverfront at South Bank, OTTO Ristorante and OTTO Osteria bring a vibrant glamour to the Brisbane dining scene. The food at OTTO is delicious and unashamedly simple, taking inspiration from modern Italy.

River Quay, South Bank 07 3825 2888  ottoristorante.com.au

THE SOUND SOCIETY

Settle into the lush surrounds of South Bank’s Rainforest Green for an afternoon of free live music from emerging artists (singers, singer-songwriters and great Brissie bands). Local food and beverage vendors ensure that you don’t have to move very far for tasty treats. Or, feel free to bring your own picnic: The Sound Society is about slowing down, slow food and taking it easy.

FORTITUDE VALLEY

Fortitude Valley has many facets, each proving to be as alluring as the next. While this eclectic suburb has an interesting history these days it is both an indie shopping haven and a nightlife spot from sunrise to sunset. By day you can uncover hidden treasures and delicious eats in boutiques and laneways, and once night falls it’s time to bring the party. The Valley has a solid reputation as Brisbane’s evening entertainment capital – you can dance up a storm, see a killer live band, explore rooftop bars and sip some of the best cocktails in the country all in the space of a few blocks. Great people watching by day and by night and plenty to do to occupy you around the clock.

HOLEY MOLEY: GAMERS AND GOLFERS REJOICE

Arcade game bar Netherworld is filled with cool nostalgia, retro decks and old-school consoles. Sporting over 100 titles you’ll find Space Invaders, Donkey Kong, Frogger, NBA Jam and more. Pinball machines include Twilight Zone, Metallica and Flash Gordon. Head to Orleigh Park for a riverside picnic. You’ll be surrounded by 100 year old Moreton Bay fig trees that have seen it all including two major floods in 1893 and 1974. These catastrophes wiped-out houses right here on this lush and peaceful fringe of the river. Locals affectionately refer to Orleigh Park as ‘froggy park’ after the huge frog slide.
NEW FARM

If sprawling parks, laid-back eateries and culture galore are your thing, New Farm is the jackpot. Everywhere you look seems to reflect the tranquil vibe of this suburb, but don’t let that fool you into thinking it’s just a sleepy town. There’s plenty on offer in the way of live entertainment, unique eateries and bars you simply wouldn’t see anywhere else. The famous New Farm Park is a Brisbane gem – this is the perfect spot to lay down a picnic rug or play a heated game of cricket. You can also catch the latest flicks in style at the licensed New Farm Cinemas – cheers to that.

BRISBANE POWERHOUSE

Brisbane Powerhouse is a contemporary arts centre in a pre-war industrial power station. In the mid-1900s the Powerhouse supplied electricity to the tram network and continued to supply Brisbane suburbs until the early 60s when squatters and artists moved into the derelict space. Graffiti from this time has been preserved. The artistic program encompasses comedy; speakers sessions; bands; theatre and dance and forward-thinking festivals like the Brisbane Festival; MELT (Festival of Queer Arts and Culture); and Wonderland (a carnival of circus, comedy, music, physical theatre and burlesque). Mary Mae’s offers sharing options and Bar Alto relaxed Italian.
